

IRVING M. LONDON

---

HARVARD COLLEGE A.B. summa cum laude

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL M.D.; U Chicago ScD (hon)

U.S. Army, Captain Medical Corps 1944-46

Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons 1947-1955

Founding Chairman Department of Medicine, Albert Einstein College of Medicine 1955-1970

Founding Director, Harvard-MIT Division of Health Sciences and Technology 1969-1985

Professor of Medicine, Harvard Medical School and Professor of Biology,
MIT, 1969 to 1989, emeritus 1989 to present

Member, American Academy of Arts and Sciences 1963-

President, American Society for Clinical Investigation 1964

Charter Member, Institute of Medicine 1970-

Member, National Academy of Sciences 1971-

Research Interests: Genetic control of hemoglobin synthesis. Gene therapy for Sickle Cell Anemia and Thalassemia. The role of heme in regulating initiation of protein synthesis in erythroid cells. Metabolism of hemoglobin and bile pigments.